International Women's Day 2017 was celebrated in the seminar hall of Madhab Choudhury College, Barpeta with great enthusiasm. The programme featured Dr. Archana Sharma, Professor and former Head of the Department of Economics, Gauhati University, and former Director (i/c) of the Women's Studies Research Centre, as the Chief Guest and Resource Person.

Dr. Sharma delivered an insightful lecture on the theme "Women in the Changing World of Work: Planet 50–50 by 2030." In her address, she highlighted the importance of gender equality and equal rights for the progress and well-being of society. She also shared several real-life experiences related to women's empowerment, which made the session highly engaging and inspiring.

The lecture was well received by the students and faculty members of the college. Dr. Sharma encouraged students to remain gender-sensitive, work with confidence, and utilize the opportunities available to them to achieve success in life.
