On 8 March 2019, International Women's Day was celebrated by the Women Cell of Madhab Choudhury College, Barpeta in collaboration with the Women's Cell of Assam College Teachers' Association (ACTA) Unit at Patbaushi M.V. School, Barpeta. The programme was organized in accordance with the International Women's Day 2019 theme, "Think Equal, Build Smart, Innovate for Change."

Dr. Smita Srivastava attended the programme as the Resource Person and delivered an informative lecture in the presence of students, guardians, teachers of the school, and faculty members of Madhab Choudhury College. In her address, she highlighted the importance of maintaining a healthy lifestyle for the overall development of individuals and society. She also emphasized the significance of gender equality in bringing about positive social change.

On this occasion, Mrs. Deepalee Deka, Associate Professor, Department of Assamese, and Mrs. Neelima Nath, Associate Professor, Department of Education, both from Madhab Choudhury College, also delivered lectures. Their deliberations were highly appreciated by the audience, making the programme both informative and meaningful for all participants.
