International Women's Day, 2020 was observed on 06.03.2020, as 8 March was a local holiday due to the festival of DouL Utsav. On the occasion of the forthcoming International Women's Day, a Health Awareness Programme for Women and Children was organized at Patbaushi M.V. School, Barpeta.

The programme was conducted by the Women Cell of Madhab Choudhury College, Barpeta in collaboration with the Women's Cell of Assam College Teachers' Association (ACTA) Unit. Dr. Smita Srivastava attended the event as the Resource Person and delivered an informative lecture on health awareness in the presence of students, guardians, teachers of the school, and faculty members of the college. In her address, Dr. Srivastava emphasized the importance of maintaining a healthy lifestyle for overall well-being.

Following the awareness session, a free health check-up camp for women and children was conducted. Many women and children consulted Dr. Srivastava regarding various health-related issues, and free medicines were also distributed among the participants.

The programme, organized in collaboration with the ACTA Women's Cell, was highly appreciated by the participants and proved to be a meaningful initiative for promoting health awareness in the community.
