International Women's Day 2025 was celebrated on 8 March 2025 at the Seminar Hall of Madhab Choudhury College, Barpeta. The programme was organized by the Women's Cell (IQAC) of Madhab Choudhury College in collaboration with the Women's Cell of the Assam College Teachers' Association (ACTA), M.C. College Teachers' Unit. The event was based on the theme "For ALL Women and Girls: Rights, Equality and Empowerment."

Dr. Jumi Borgohain, Director and Chief Radiation Oncologist, attended the programme as the invited speaker. The welcome address was delivered by the Principal of the college, Dr. Prakash Sarma, who highlighted the importance of women's empowerment for the overall progress of society.

During the programme, Krishna Kalita, a sixth semester student, presented a beautiful poem depicting the life and struggles of women. Dr. Rameeza Hasan, Convener of the Women's Cell (IQAC), elaborated on the theme of the event, while Dr. Partha Pratim Choudhury, Co-ordinator, IQAC, spoke about the importance of education in empowering women. A brief introduction of the invited speaker was presented by Mr. Hom Bahadur Chetri, President, M.C. College Teachers' Unit.

Dr. Jumi Borgohain delivered an informative lecture on Cervical Cancer and related health issues affecting women. The session was highly interactive, with active participation from both faculty members and students. The talk was attended by a large number of participants and proved to be highly informative and successful.

The programme concluded with a beautiful musical rendition by Mrinmoyee Talukdar, part-time faculty of the Department of Anthropology. Finally, the vote of thanks was delivered by Phulrani Gogoi, AGS and Convener of the Women's Cell of the M.C. College Teachers' Unit (ACTA). The programme ended on a positive and inspiring note.
